

Washington Counties Risk Pool – Senior Claims Analyst

Senior Claims Analyst: The WCRP has an extraordinary opportunity for a Senior Claims Analyst to join our claims team, handling high-level and complex liability claims in our Tumwater, Washington, office. The Sr. Claims Analyst will bring years of liability claims, coverage, and litigation experience to assist the WCRP in administering the liability claims filed against its member counties. The ideal candidate will have the required experience and education and will bring excellent communication skills, a flexible travel schedule, and will provide the WCRP's claims team and the WCRP's member counties with advanced claims and litigation knowledge and support.

Please visit our website for a full job description and for instructions on how to apply

<http://www.wcrp.info/employment.asp>